

SB-8

Electronic variometer with speed command

- Electronic variometer with total energy compensation by a TE probe
- Excellent zero stability and accuracy
- Two different electronic filters can be selected by the pilot according to weather conditions and his needs
- Averager, outside air temperature and battery indicator
- Vario multitone audio tells you meter reading very clearly
- Automatic volume control for pilot comfort
- SB-8 combines with a variety of auxiliary meters
- Speed command computer which really works
- Normal and „dirty“ polars, continuously adjustable MacCready and wing loading values
- Automatic muting of audio signals when cruise speed is correct
- Switching between climb and cruise can be done by flaps or remote switch
- Complete system fits in 80mm cutout
- Easy to install and use
- Polarity protected and no radio interference
- Detailed user manual with helpful hints
- Bolt-on ILEC ASR final glide computer
- Power consumption is only 40mA at medium volume, 90mA max.

For more information please refer to our SB-8 manual.